Ayyub Ibrahim:

The Real Time Crime Center (RTCC) has compiled the list of NOPD Item Numbers for instances where the RTCC has identified relevant footage. Please note that there are over 18,000 Item Numbers. The RTCC does not track the status of investigations in its dataset regarding requests for footage. However, please note that data.nola.gov provides information on the disposition of NOPD Item Numbers. Here is a link to the 2022 Electronic Police Report data for your reference: <https://data.nola.gov/Public-Safety-and-Preparedness/Electronic-Police-Report-2022/9wdb-bznc/data>. Please be advised that the above-described records responsive to your request have been compiled and are available for purchase. Please see the provided invoice for details on how to remit payment.

On behalf of the custodial department(s), our office has responded to your request and considers it closed.

Thank you, the City of New Orleans Law Department has received your Public Records Law request.

Your request has been forwarded to the City department or office which is the custodian of the records you requested. The custodian will determine whether responsive records exist, and if so, compile the records for your review.

Please refer to the due date located on the individual "Request #" page for an estimate of when your records, if any, will be available. This estimated due date may be adjusted depending on the nature of your request.

Note also that records may be in active use at this time and therefore not available for immediate review. Additionally, in accordance with the Louisiana Public Records Law, the City of New Orleans strives to promptly release all records which contain only public information and are not otherwise exempt from the Public Records Law. The City must balance its commitment to open access with its legal obligation to review public records for such exceptions and exemptions prior to release.

As soon as the custodian notifies our office that the records have been compiled and are available for review, we will notify you to schedule a mutually agreeable time to review or purchase copies of the records. Thank you for your request, and we look forward to working with you to provide public records in a fair and efficient manner.

Thank you,
